Redcliff Couple Married Here Last Friday

COLLARD — KUFFNER

Gordon Memorial United Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Friday afternoon, Dec. 15th, when a large attendance of friends assembled to witness the nuptials of two popular young Redcliff people, when Miss Olga Antonia Kuffner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Brown of Redcliff, became the bride of Mr. Melville Albert Collard, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Collard, also of Redcliff.

Promptly at three o'clock the bridal party entered the Church to the solemn strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin played by Mrs. R. C. H. Gray, and proceeded up the aisle to the altar where the groom and his attendant awaited their arrival.

The lovely bride, who was given in marriage by her father was a picture in a floor length wedding gown of shell pink sheer crepe. She wore a long veil caught with orange blossoms, golden colored slippers and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Rose Kuffner, sister of the bride looked charming in a floor length gown of orchid satin. She wore silver colored slippers and a doll hat in orchid shades. Her bouquet consisted of yellow mums.

The groom was attended by Mr. Clifford Bergeron.

Rev. H. V. Ellison performed the ceremony.

After the signing of the register the wedding party left the Church to the joyful strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March and proceeded to the home of the groom's parents, where sumptuous wedding refreshments were served and partaken of by the immediate relatives and friends of the young couple.

Here Rev. H. V. Ellison proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom also responded.

The happy couple left on the evening train for Calgary for a short honeymoon returning Monday to take up residence in Redcliff where Mr. Collard is employed by the Dominion Glass Co.

The Review joins with their many friends in wishing 'Me!' and his bride many years of happy and prosperous married life.

Dr. Lewis Gave First Aid Lecture Friday

NEXT FIRST AID LECTURE AFTER THE NEW YEAR

The fifth of the First Aid Lectures under the auspices of the St. John Ambulance Assoc. was given last Friday, Dec. 15th, in the basement of Gordon Memorial Church.

Before the lecture, Mr. J. J. Nott showed two moving pictures, one of which demonstrated the action and behavior of the blood and bones in case of accident and how to treat same, the other advertising the Safety First idea in a very amusing way.

Dr. Lewis gave a lecture on treatment of unconsciousness in its different phases.

The attention of the public is called to the fact that the next First Aid lecture will NOT be given before Friday, Jan. 5th.

A Christmas Message To Redcliff Folk

Contributed By
Rev. H. S. Hammett,
Vicar, of St. Ambrose

"What sudden blaze of song
Sprinkles o'er the expense of Heav'n?
In waves of light it thrills
along,
The angelic signal given—
"Glory to God!" from yonder
central fire
Flows out the echoing lay beyond the starry choir;

Like circles widening round
Upon a clear blue river,
Orb after orb, the wondrous sound
Is echoed on for ever:
"Glory to God on high, on earth
be Peace,
And love towards men of love—
salvation and release."

As we approach the solemn season once again, let us make up our minds that the Gospel of love shall be our Gospel from this day forward, that the world may know we have been with Christ. Let us give a thought, a prayer, and a helping hand to any whom we find in need of our ministrations. Let us thank God that among all the tumult and strife in the world today, we stand at peace within our borders.

Christmas, a time for joy and thanksgiving; a time for the exchange of happy greetings between loved ones near and far; a time for reunion of families and friends, a time to remember all that is good and happy and holy.

So we wish you this Christmas peace in your homes, happy reunions with loved ones and to one and all

A Happy and Holy Christmas.

Three Xmas Trees Enjoyed Tuesday

Three Churches Hold Yuletide Treats For Children

Tuesday evening was set aside by three of the local churches as the night for the Yuletide treat for the children of the Sunday Schools.

Gordon Memorial, St. Ambrose and St. Mary's churches held Christmas Tree entertainments which were well attended and thoroughly enjoyed, especially by the children.

Programs of songs, recitations, etc. were rendered by the children themselves. At Gordon Memorial, Mr. J. J. Nott showed moving pictures which were greatly appreciated. St. Ambrose served a hot supper to the children before the program.

The highlights of the evening came of course when the candles and gifts were distributed.

Miss Carol Sellhorn, George Hollanlyne and Ralph Hargrave are expected to arrive home from Edmonton where they have been attending University tomorrow to spend the Christmas holidays.

Miss Betty Inaud of Medicine Hat is visiting here with her sister, Mrs. Myron Davies.

Legion Christmas Tree Enjoyed Last Night

A Splendid Attendance. And Many Parents Present

The Annual Legion Christmas Tree Entertainment was held last night in the Cameo Theatre. The verdict is that it was the best Christmas entertainment held by the Legion in years.

There was a splendid crowd, including many parents. A good program of songs, tap dancing etc. was rendered, and Kathleen Sheehy acting as pianist for the evening.

The Tree looked lovely with its electric illuminations and the spot lights thrown on the performers added much to the evening's enjoyment.

Santa Clause delighted the

Why Is It?

What strange new sensation is this that has taken possession of us? Why all the gentility, and cheerful greetings as we meet? Why this new feeling of kindness and friendliness abroad in the land? Why this increasing generosity and helpfulness so evident on every hand?

Why this forbearance and apparent blindness to the other fellow's shortcomings? Why this desire to make somebody happy? Why? Don't you know?

IT'S CHRISTMAS!

Hearts of the children and was particularly generous this year. The fine program was arranged by Mrs. Jno. Kitchin and was well carried through by Mr. Jno. Podesta who acted as chairman.

We wish to take this opportunity of wishing our many friends

Two Small Children. Appear To Have Contracted Mild Attacks.

A case of Scarlet Fever made its appearance in town on Tuesday, when little Pauline Britt, younger daughter of Mr. Stanley Britt was found to have contracted the disease.

Yesterday another case was reported—that of young Jack Parkari son of Mrs. J. Parkari. Both children appear to have mild attacks and are reported as doing nicely.

Parents would be well advised if they would keep a sharp lookout for symptoms of this serious disease and should any be suspected to report to the health officer at once.

Christmas

Once more we reach a fateful post,
Upon life's broad highway
To keep a tryst with Father Time
Who comes with greetings gay.
Leave now and trouble to themselves
Let pleasure hold full sway.
Hark to the laughter and the song,
All hail to Christmas Day.

The old folks and the youngsters join
In play and merry jest,
Or in the singing of the songs
That old folks love the best.
Because the men's use that they bring
Are like a golden ray
'Luminous all the happy hours
That crowd the Christmas Day.
